

OWENSBORO SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

NICHOLAS PALMER, MUSIC DIRECTOR

2011 AUDITIONS

The Owensboro Symphony Orchestra will conduct local auditions for the positions listed below on Friday, August 19 (horn only) and Thursday, August 25 (all other positions).

Auditions will also be held in Bloomington, Indiana Friday, August 26 (bassoon only) and Saturday, August 27 (strings only, jointly with the Evansville Philharmonic).

The following positions are available:

Section Violin (4)	Oboe III/English Horn/Assistant Principal Oboe
Section Viola (2)	Bassoon III/Contrabassoon
Section Cello (1)	Horn II

Audition requirements and repertoire are available for download at:

http://www.4shared.com/folder/w3DY5myo/2011_Audition_repertoire.html

Per service pay scale for all of these positions is $65.15. The orchestra also pays gas reimbursement at a rate of $.16/mile for carpooling musicians and provides hotel accommodations (double occupancy) for services on consecutive days.

The Owensboro Symphony is a regional orchestra that will perform six subscription concerts, one pops concert, one run-out concert, two summer concerts, and one church chamber performance during the 2011-12 season. The OSO also sponsors two Youth Orchestras and a 120 voice chorus.

Interested musicians must send an educational/professional resume to:

Gregory Olson, Personnel Manager

E-mail: gjolson@roadrunner.com Ph. (502) 684-0661

PLEASE NOTE: E-mail attachment resumes (.doc or .pdf only) are preferred.

Please note which audition site you prefer. Qualified applicants will be contacted to arrange an audition time. Deadline for all applications for local auditions is Monday, August 8.